The New Mexico Film Office Announces 3 Multi-Media Productions Filmed In New Mexico

SANTA FE, NM – The New Mexico Film Office announces three multi-media productions filmed in New Mexico.

“It is great to see these new media projects being shot in New Mexico and taking advantage of our talented crew, New Mexico's beautiful and unique landscapes, as well as the tax incentive. This is an area where we want to expand the film and television industry and ecosystem,” said Amber Dodson, Director, New Mexico Film Office.

Meow Wolf Denver: Meow Wolf Denver, is a multi-media production produced by Meow Wolf is filming in Santa Fe, New Mexico though May of 2021.

The film is directed by Chadney Everett, Tristan Love, Kron, Brad Wolfley, and Annie Jaynes, and Adan Canto and produced by Todd Richins, Cathleen Sutherland, and Michael Becker

"As Meow Wolf's reach expands beyond the boundaries of New Mexico, we are proud and excited to continue producing exhibition content on our home turf, taking full advantage of the exceptional local cast and crew base." - Meow Wolf

The production will employ approximately 275 New Mexico crew members, 60 New Mexico principal actors, and 75 New Mexico extras.

Meow Wolf is producing its next immersive, narrative-based multimedia experience - a maximalist, mind-bending, sci-fi saga set within several converged worlds - Meow Wolf Denver. The fictional video, audio, and new media content will be presented by traditional means throughout the Denver exhibit, but will also be integrated into the physical environment and interactive with a smartphone app. This innovative approach will set a new precedent for how media and a narrative can be delivered, experienced and assimilated, within a robust storytelling world that audiences can explore.

Third Story Automotive: Third Story Automotive, is a commercial for Volkswagon produced by Third Story Films LLC, filmed in Taos and Albuquerque, New Mexico in the fall of 2020.

The commercial is directed by Mike Million and Christopher Stahl and produced by Todd Harter.

The production employed approximately 45 New Mexico crew members.

“Filming this car commercial in New Mexico was an amazing experience. Not only are the locations beautiful across the state, but the local crew is top notch and a pleasure to work with.”
