New Mexico Film Office Lists Halloween Themed Film and Television Productions Shot In New Mexico

New Mexicans Urged to Stay Home, Watch Movies, and Support Local Businesses with Takeout

SANTA FE, NM – Ahead of this Halloween weekend, the New Mexico Film Office has released a list of Halloween themed productions shot in New Mexico. The list is composed of horror, thriller, mystery, and post-apocalyptic films and television shows produced all across the Land of Enchantment.

“New Mexico has been the location of choice in several productions that fall into the category of 'Halloween.' As we continue to urge people to stay home this year due to the COVID-19 pandemic, it is our hope that this list will help ease the search and get folks to folks to stay home, watch a movie or show made right here in New Mexico, and support a local business by ordering takeout from their favorite local restaurant,” Amber Dodson, Director of the New Mexico Film Office, said.
