Job Training Incentive Program Awards Seven Companies $708,167 in June to Create 99 Jobs in June

Santa Fe - The New Mexico Economic Development Department's Job Training Incentive Program (JTIP) Board approved $708,167 in funding, at its June meeting, to seven companies that will create 99 jobs around New Mexico with an average wage of $15.20. The next JTIP board meeting will be Friday, July 11, 2014 at the CNM Workforce Training Center in Albuquerque.

"JTIP is a proven job-creating program designed to help offset the cost of on-the-job training for qualified companies when a New Mexican is hired," said Economic Development Secretary Jon Barela. "This is an important program that helps manufacturers, high-tech firms and other companies expand their workforce and create more jobs paying better wages."
