The New Mexico Film Office Announces the Feature Film Impossible Has Completed Production in New Mexico

SANTA FE, N.M. – The New Mexico Film Office today announced the feature film Impossible, produced by 100 The Movie LLC, has completed production in New Mexico. Filming took place in late August and early September 2021 in Abiquiu, New Mexico.

“It is an exciting time for the New Mexico film industry, we are seeing production in every corner of the state. Impossible will showcase the beautiful landscapes of Northern New Mexico” said Amber Dodson, Director, New Mexico Film Office.

Impossible is directed by Seckeita Lewis (Jerico) and produced by Brandon and Seckeita Lewis (Jerico).

Impossible is a drama that follows a morbidly obese man clinging onto a childhood dream of being a police officer. Now an insurance salesman, whose fast-food addiction has led to obesity, he is lost. When his doctor tells him he has diabetes and must lose weight or die, he heads straight to the comforts of his favorite burger joint. There he meets its newest employee, a spitfire widow, Margaret. They become friends and through her tough love and encouragement she challenges him to live outside of the greasy bag and go after his childhood dream.

The production employed 3 New Mexico crew members. Principal cast includes JoMarie Payton (Family Matters, Proud Family), Brandon Lewis (Jerico), Gregg Daniel (True Blood, Insecure) Irma P. Hall (Soul Food, Collateral, Lady Killers) and Sherri Shepherd (The View, Brian Banks).

“Impossible is based off Brandon's real-life struggles with obesity and diabetes. The film is intended to inspire and empower audiences struggling with hopelessness as they face these challenges,” Seckeita Lewis, Director said.
