The New Mexico Film Office Announces A New Feature Film by ViacomCBS is in Production in New Mexico

SANTA FE, N.M. – The New Mexico Film Office today announced a film project by ViacomCBS is currently in production in Santa Fe, New Mexico. Filming has been taking place in August and will shoot through early September 2021.

“This is a very exciting and iconic production being shot in New Mexico and we cannot wait to see the outcome and share more about it soon. We welcome the entire team to the Land of Enchantment” said Amber Dodson, Director, New Mexico Film Office.

The production is employing approximately 150 New Mexico crew members and 5 New Mexico principal cast members.

For more information on the production contact kenntopol@gmail.com.

All film and television productions in New Mexico are required to adhere to the state’s operative emergency public health order, associated public health restrictions and COVID-Safe Practices.

The New Mexico Film Office has released Back2One, a catchall set of principles, general recommendations, and resources for film and television productions operating during COVID-19. Back2One recommendations and other COVID-Safe Practices can be found at nmfilm.com.
