  - a. Josue De Luna- Climate Justice Coordinator
    - i. PowerPoint Presentation- Power 4 NM
  - b. Questions:
    - i. Uses of language could be shifted to be more inclusive- Janene
    - ii. What type of tribal engagement occurred while the study was being conducted? - Janene
      1. Response- Study was conducted in 2020, many tribal organizations were stressed at the time and UNM due to own internal capacity did not have the capacity to fully engage tribal communities. It was identified as an opportunity as SB112 was crafted. There are 8 IAD appointed positions for SEAC in response to this. – James
      2. Conduct supplemental study with new appointees in place- Janene
    - iii. In what way would you like the SEAC and TF to engage with community members?
      1. Committed to work and engage community members, by mobilizing a space where community members can express ideas, concerns, and visions.

Power 4 NM could benefit from better marketing efforts to inform the community about upcoming events. – Josue
