This Week's Highlight: Frontier & Native American Communities and Urban Neighborhood Commercial Corridor Initiatives

New Mexico MainStreet is accepting applications to the Frontier & Native American Communities and Urban Neighborhood Commercial Corridor initiatives.

Apply online by January 20, 2023

Through a competitive application process, rural community stakeholders in partnership with their local governing body identify an economic development project within a town center, village plaza, courthouse square, or historic/traditional commercial corridor they want support to implement.

Proposed projects must demonstrate job creation, business development, leverage private sector investment, or enhancement of a community's economic environment. Selected communities receive professional services and technical assistance from New Mexico MainStreet to implement and complete the proposed project within a 12- to 18-month timeframe.
