 - ii. A report will be circulated with all of the below gathered information surrounding the below topics
 - 1. Opportunities
 - 2. Challenges
 - a. Workforce, permitting, regulatory were the key areas of challenge
 - 3. Metrics to track success
 - a. What do we need to track overtime to be successful, can we track those jobs that are attractive to NM because of our access to Renewable Energy?
 - iii. Next steps: sector on Aerospace and Agriculture, will partner with Space New Mexico and the Agriculture Department at NMSU
 - iv. Questions
 - 1. Miori Harms- How do you connect technical training programs to potential employers?
 - 2. Rob- Leadership was brought in from workforce boards across the state at the regional level, working with HED to identify opportunities where different types of training exists. In large projects, a lot of people are needed, how do we support those large workforces and how do we stage them with other employers and developers. There is the connectivity piece.
 - 3. Patricia- With wind grant, the common course numbering will benefit the state, this is an opportunity for us to Asset map. Wants to partner and figure out how to create these pathways. HED is on board.
 - 4. Michelle Miano- When will this report be available and circulated?
 - 5. Rob- The hope is there will be a draft prior to the end of January for review.
 - 6. Milo- Excited about Common Course Coding, anyway we can coordinate, I'm happy to help.
 - 7. Patricia-HED is hoping the work will be done around May or June
- 7. University of New Mexico Center for Sustainability and Responsible Business update
 - a. Did not hear back from this office, there is not a representative on this call to give an update
 - b. Follow-up will reach out to see if they can present at the next meeting
- 8. Public Comments
 - a. Miori Harms, Environment Department, Uranium Mine Reclamation Coordinator, Introduction
 - i. This position is tasked with finding financial means to make reclamation happen, will be working with EDD and WFS
 - ii. Would like to create a training and development program in order to line employees up with direct employers
 - b. AnnaLinden- would you find it useful to have your office mate (Clint) from EMNRD come to these meetings?
 - i. Miori- We have not explored if there is an interest there.
- 9. Vote to adjourn

- a. Motion- Dana Bahar
- b. Second- Milo McMinn
