This Week's Highlight: SCORE

SCORE's mission is to foster vibrant small business communities through mentoring and education. SCORE aims to give every person the support they need to thrive as a small business owner. Their programs and mentors can help you start, grow, or successfully exit a business.

Small business owners who receive three or more hours of mentoring report higher revenues and increased growth. SCORE offers resources, mentors, workshops, events, and volunteer opportunities.

Community Resources

USDA Farm Labor Stabilization and Protection Pilot Program \(FLSP\)

Awards of up to $65 million in American Rescue Plan Act funding to provide support for agricultural employers in implementing robust labor standards that promote a safe, healthy work environment for both U.S. workers and workers hired under the seasonal H-2A visa program. Deadline: January 3.

Rural Economic Development Loan and Grant Programs

Provides funding for rural projects through local utility organizations. USDA provides zero-interest loans to local utilities which they, in turn, pass through to local businesses (ultimate recipients) for projects that will create and retain employment in rural areas. The ultimate recipients repay the lending utility directly. The utility is responsible for repayment to USDA. Funds are awarded quarterly. Next deadline is December 31.

Finding New Sources of Funding in Challenging Times: An Introduction

The National Preservation Institute is offering an on-demand training course. During times of economic hardship, and the resulting narrowing of priorities for funders, funding can be difficult to find. Learn how to evaluate a cultural resource project for its value in serving broader community needs. Review traditional funding types vs. alternative sources that can be redirected to meet project goals. Consider new partnerships that can expand the universe of support.

USDA 1994 Tribal Scholars Program

The program seeks to increase the number of American Indian and Alaska Native students studying agriculture, food, natural resource sciences, and related disciplines. The program combines classroom study with paid work experience that leads to employment at USDA. They provide full tuition, employment, housing or a living stipend, employee benefits, fees, and books each year for up to four years to selected students pursuing a bachelor's degree in agriculture, food science, natural resource science, or a related academic discipline at one of 35 federally recognized Tribal colleges and universities and continuing education at other institutions. Deadline: December 1.

Housing Counseling Training Grant Program

The purpose of this assistance is to continue investing in the creation and maintenance of a professional and effective housing counseling industry that meaningfully assists consumers by providing them with the information to make informed housing choices and maximizes the impact of federal funding appropriated for HUD's Housing Counseling Program. Deadline: November 29.

Patrick Leahy Farm to School Grant Program

Designed to increase the availability of local foods in schools and help connect students to the sources of their food through education, taste tests, school gardens, field trips, and local food sourcing for school meals. Grants can launch new farm-to-school programs or expand existing efforts. Deadline: January 11, 2024.

Forming Partnerships Initiative

The Forming Partnerships Initiative was created to help a New Mexico-based Outdoor Education and Recreation (OER) company in need of architectural services. The award is up to $20,000 in pro-bono design and consultation services. Services may include visioning, site analysis, feasibility studies, long-term planning, site planning, conceptual design, and architectural and interior design consultation. Deadline: November 28.

Career Skills Training Program

Provides grants to eligible entities to pay the federal share of Career Skills Training Programs under which students concurrently receive classroom instruction and on-the-job training for the purpose of obtaining an industry-related certification to install energy efficient building technologies. The goals of the program are to promote the collaboration between labor organizations and industry to attract, train, and employ workers; enhance existing programs for replication; and create a diverse, skilled, and credentialed workforce that is positioned to install energy technologies in buildings. Deadline: November 26.

Tribal Broadband Connectivity Program

Expands access to, and adoption of, broadband services on Tribal Lands and programs that promote the use of broadband to access remote learning, telework, or telehealth resources. Deadline: January 23.

Fair Housing Initiatives Program \(FHIP\)

Funds fair housing organizations and other nonprofits to carry out education, outreach, and enforcement activities to prevent discriminatory housing practices and inform individuals of their rights and responsibilities under the Fair Housing Act. Deadline: November 30.
